

Exhibits at UMass Field Station

1. Brandeis Student Environmental Action Club will share what they are doing to bring environmental action to Brandeis.
2. Charles River Watershed Association: Learn how watersheds work by playing with an interactive watershed-in-a-box!
3. Community Farms Outreach. Enjoy a guided walk on the farm, plant seeds and take some with you, participate in children activities such as seed planting, rock painting and more.
4. Fitzgerald Elementary School. Stop by to see the work of the 4th grade active worm bin, a compost bin, and an accompanying display explaining the ease and value of composting! Gummy worms will be for sale.
5. Green Rows of Waltham Community Garden and Waltham Farmers Market will highlight the importance of local agriculture.
6. Infancy to Independence. Composting demonstration and children's seed-planting activity.
7. League of Women Voters will highlight LWV positions on the environment, open space, and recycling.
8. Recycline, Inc. will be selling Preserve brand products and examples of how they make their recycled products.
9. Soil Testing. Only on Earth Day you will be able to submit your soil samples and get the results by mail! (Fee required)
10. Stonehurst the Robert Treat Paine Estate. Learn about one of the main features of this eco-friendly house built of boulders found on site. The Sundial Activity will help children create a sundial and orient it to find the time of day.
11. Waltham Land Trust. A water cycle activity will teach the wonders of nature at your fingertips and about how the water cycle gives us renewable energy.
12. Waltham Recreation Department. Pick up maps and educational material about the City's wooded trails and parks. Educational and fun children activities.
13. Waltham Recycling Department will highlight Waltham's efforts to increase recycling.
14. Waverley Place Community Greenhouse Project. Horticultural sales.

Food Vendors:

- Lions Club of Waltham – hot dogs, sausages, and fruit
- Waltham Land Trust – organic fruit juice

Exhibits at Cedar Hill

1. Climate Action Group at First Parrish will have an exhibit with educational materials about things one can do to help alleviate global climate change including building and home energy audits, energy efficiency, Step It Up 2007 campaign, and more. Compact fluorescent bulbs will also be sold at the base cost.
2. Girl Scouts: Patriots' Trail Council
3. Girl Scouts Museum Tours
 - Where: Museum
 - When: 10am and 2pm
4. Grove Hill Gardens - An environmentally friendly landscape service that will share information on how to create and maintain a yard that also provides wildlife habitat, reduces runoff, and saves energy.
5. Hardy Pond Association. Learn about backyard care and how that impacts the pond/wetlands environment.
6. The Prospect Hill Park Advocacy Group will have a display about one of Waltham's most important natural and recreational sites. Stop by this table to learn about the park and pick up a schedule of PHPAG activities.
7. Shaklee, Inc. Biodegradable, nontoxic cleaning products.
8. Waltham High School Environmental Club will be recruiting volunteers for the High School grounds clean-up.
9. Waltham High School Envirothon Team will display information on global warming and how to reduce energy use.
10. Waltham Garden Club
11. The Waltham Museum will display artifacts pertaining to nature.
12. WATCH will exhibit information about sustainable and healthy buildings including innovations that WATCH has used in their affordable housing developments and hopes to use in future housing developments.

Food Vendors:

- Know Fat Lifestyle Grill – sandwich wraps, water and Cliff bars.
- Waltham High School Environmental Club – cookies and water
- RTN Credit Union – popcorn
- The Warren Farm and Sugarhouse – maple syrup and confections